AGENDA: Kansas City's Alton Hagen Receives
"One KC" Award from Kansas City's Convention & Visitors Association

Mission, Kans. (June 5, 2007) – Alton Hagen, CMP, Founder and General Manager of AGENDA: Kansas City and AGENDA: USA, has received the “One KC” Award from the Kansas City Convention & Visitors Association (KCCVA). The award was presented at the KCCVA’s Annual Tourism Celebration held May 22 at the new Grand Ballroom in Bartle Hall, downtown Kansas City.

The “One KC” Award is given annually to an individual or group that builds regional cooperation and support of tourism initiatives. The recipient shows true community vision and has enhanced the regional partnership of our community by breaking the boundaries and working across community and state lines.

Hagen has been an active member of the KCCVA since 1989. One of the first 200 meeting professionals to receive his CMP (Certified Meeting Professional) designation, Hagen has been in the hospitality industry for more than 30 years. He and/or his associates often participate in the KCCVA’s marketing and sales efforts to generate greater awareness of Kansas City and all the city has to offer.

AGENDA: Kansas City is a full service Destination Management Company providing event production, tour and transportation services to organizations in the Kansas City metro area since 1989. Further information about the company can be found on its Web site, www.AGENDA-KansasCity.com.
