AGENDA: Kansas City Receives
PCMA Heartland Chapter Supporter Award

Mission, Kan. (February 16, 2010) – AGENDA: Kansas City, a full service Destination Management Company (DMC) providing event production, tour and ground transportation services to organizations in the Kansas City metro area, has received the Professional Conventional Management Association’s (PCMA) Heartland Chapter Supporter Award.

The award was presented at the Heartland Chapter of PCMA’s annual awards program on February 4th held at the Intercontinental Hotel in Kansas City. The award recognizes an individual or organization that has made a significant difference to the Heartland Chapter’s ability to service its membership through volunteer efforts or contributions. Bobby Riggins, Manager of Group Transportation for AGENDA: Kansas City, accepted the award on behalf of the company. Riggins had been instrumental in creating a video for the evening’s event. AGENDA: Kansas City has long been a supporter of PCMA and its associates are actively involved in the organization.

In commenting on the award, Alton Hagen, General Manager of AGENDA: Kansas City, said, “We’re thrilled to be recognized for our company’s involvement and support. PCMA plays an important role in the hospitality industry. We believe in supporting those organizations which support and improve our industry. And I would like to add a personal note of thanks to Bobby Riggins for his tremendous efforts in support of the Heartland Chapter through the years.”

AGENDA: Kansas City is a full service Destination Management Company that has provided event production, tour and transportation services to organizations in the Kansas City metro area since 1989.
