AGENDA: Kansas City's Bobby Riggins Receives Award from PCMA Heartland Chapter

Lenexa, Kans. (Feb 6, 2007) – Bobby Riggins with AGENDA: Kansas City has received the Professional Convention Management Association (PCMA) Heartland Chapter Award for Continued Chapter Involvement. The award was presented at the Annual PCMA Heartland Chapter Awards Banquet at the Overland Park Marriott Hotel on January 30.

Riggins is Manager of the Group Transportation Division for AGENDA: Kansas City. In his role, he designs and executes all transportation services related to group arrivals, departures, shuttles, and tours. Riggins works directly with meeting planners and travel departments to insure complete organization for the company's clients.

Riggins was recognized for his contributions to the PCMA chapter over his nearly six years of membership. After the awards were presented, Riggins was also recognized for his efforts over the past year as the Chair of the Technology committee. This position requires Riggins to maintain and update the chapter's website, take photos at the programs for the quarterly newsletters, and develop a slideshow each year for the Annual Installation Dinner.

AGENDA: Kansas City is a full service Destination Management Company providing event production, tour and transportation services to organizations in the Kansas City metro area for more than 16 years. Further information about the company can be found on its Web site, www.AGENDA-KansasCity.com.
