AGENDA: Kansas City's Bruce Adcox Receives Allied Employee Exceptional Service Award

Award is Presented by The Greater KC Hotel & Lodging Association

Lenexa, Kans. (April 27, 2005) – Bruce Adcox with AGENDA: Kansas City has received the Allied Employee Exceptional Service Award from The Greater Kansas City Hotel & Lodging Association. The award was presented following the association's Heartland Hospitality Expo on April 14.

Bruce is Fleet Dispatcher with AGENDA: USA, the chauffeured transportation division of AGENDA: Kansas City. In his role, Bruce directs the company's chauffeurs throughout each day, assists with reservations and supports all aspects of the company's transportation division. He joined the Destination Management Company in 1994 and has worn many hats over the course of that time.

Bruce was recognized for his dedication to the company and its customers. Many examples of his "above and beyond" attitude were cited by AGENDA: USA's clients as part of his nomination. This included an example following the tragic events of September 11, 2001, when Bruce drove some of his customers home to Chicago after they were stranded in Kansas City.

AGENDA: Kansas City is a full service Destination Management Company providing event production, tour and transportation services to organizations in the Kansas City metro area since 1989. Further information about the company can be found on its Web site, www.AGENDA-KansasCity.com.
