AGENDA: Kansas City's Tricia Clement Receives Certified Meeting Professional Designation

Mission, Kan. (April 2, 2009) – Tricia Clement, Event Production Manager for AGENDA: Kansas City, has received her Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) designation.

CMP is an accredited designation offered by the Convention Industry Council to members of the international hospitality community. The stringent requirements certify competency in 27 areas of meeting management through application and examination. Clement is an active member of the Kansas City Chapter of Meeting Professionals International (KCMPI), where she was recently elected to the Board of Directors as Program Chair for the upcoming term. Clement is also a member of the International Special Events Society (ISES). She joined AGENDA: Kansas City in 2007.

Clement, who was recently named president of the Kansas City Chapter of the National Association of Catering Executives (NACE) for 2009, has also just received the designation of Certified Travel Ambassador (CTA) from the Kansas City Convention & Visitors Association (KCCVA). The CTA program empowers tourism employees with knowledge on how to assist visitors to Kansas City. The program is designed to improve the experience of visitors to Kansas City, enhance Kansas City's reputation and increase economic expenditures by visitors to the area.

AGENDA: Kansas City is a full service Destination Management Company that has provided event production, tour and ground transportation services to organizations in the Kansas City metro area since 1989. The company is celebrating its 20th anniversary in 2009.
